

June 8, 2015

The Taylor County Board of Supervisors met in regular session, with Doug Horton, Charles Ambrose, Jerry Murphy and County Auditor Bonny Baker present.

After roll call the Board approved the agenda for today's meeting and the minutes of the last meeting.

Belinda Ogle was present for the discussion on Resolution 2015-19. Taylor County has made application through the Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Division to the Federal Emergency Management Agency for funding from the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program, in the amount of $50,000 for the total project cost. Taylor County recognizes the fact that this grant is based on a cost share basis with the federal share not exceeding 75%, the state share not exceeding 10% and the local share being a minimum of 15% of the total project cost in which can be either cash or in-kind match. A motion was made by Horton and seconded by Murphy to sign and approve Resolution 2015-19. The motion carried 3-0.

Ogle informed the Board that Hal Saylor was retiring June 30, 2015. Ogle also explained they were still being kicked off the internet and it was causing problems for their office. Ogle left the meeting.

Discussion was held on the tower to the Law Enforcement Center Project site. No action was taken at this time.

The Board approved the following claims: Angela Green - $50.40, Sandy McIntyre - $175.00, Adam Wainwright - $175.00, Sarah Solt - $175.00, Kandi Wichman-$175.00, City of Blockton - $120.00, Brandi Mothershead - $175.00, Ellie Harrison-$175.00, MidAmerican Energy - $299.75 and the Saint Louis County Sheriff - $50.00.

Internet costs were discussed. Martin Jones joined the meeting. No action was taken at this time.

Jim Rowe met with the Board and said they will be working on the street in Blockton.

No further business came before the Board at this time and the meeting adjourned subject to call.
