March 18, 2019

The Taylor County Board of Supervisors met in regular session with Doug Horton, Jerry Murphy, Charles Ambrose, and Auditor Bethany Murphy present.

Horton made a motion seconded by Murphy to approve the minutes from the previous meeting and today’s agenda. Motion carried 3-0.

Deputy Auditor Sue Cox visited with the Board on dual county employment. Cox wanted the Board to be aware that when a full-time employee who is already employed by the county take another part time job that is all paid at the overtime rate to be in compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Law.

Murphy gave a report on the RC&D meeting he attended.

Paul Ackley joined the meeting on behalf of the Soil and Water Commission thinking the Board for the support for the Blockton Water Shed project.

Trevor Wolf joined the meeting to set a public hearing date to change the Level C Road Ordinance. The hearing has been set for April 4th at 10:00 a.m. Wolf visited with the Board on road conditions and the maintainer would be out today and they are spot rocking. Wolf would like to take bid for a paint machine and an excavator that would be due April 18. The bridge project on the Lenox Road is set begin on April 1st, 2019. There is currently a bill up for debate in the state house to allow a raw forestry product to cross primary and non-primary highways at a weight of 130,000 pounds with a permit from the DOT and not let the local authority (Taylor County) know. Some of the older bridges in the county are not designed to handle that kind of a load. Wolf would like the Board to pass a resolution opposing this bill. Horton made a motion seconded by Murphy to approve Resolution 2019-20 opposing the bill. Motion carried 3-0.

Shellia Culp joined the meeting to discuss the Courthouse clock that is not working since being changed to daylight savings time. Mick Ware is trying to get the motor working again.

No further business came before the Board at this time, and the meeting was adjourned subject to call.

Attest:
Charles Ambrose, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors
Bethany Murphy, Taylor County Auditor